Orange Blossoms

FOLEY—WAIDE.

At St. Michael's R.C. Church, Numurkah, on the 17th inst., Miss Mary Waide, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs Daniel Waide, of Numurkah, and Mr Cornelius W. Foley, fourth son of the late John Foley, "Ennistymons," Wasia, was celebrated. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McCarthy. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a trained gown of white silk, trimmed with white lace and silk tulle fichu, caught up with orange blossoms and pearls, with the usual wreath and veil. Misses K. and B. Waide, sisters of the bride, acted as bridesmaids, and wore pretty blue transparent voile, trimmed with cream lace and applique, with white chiffon, Dolly Varden hats. Mr Joseph Foley acted as best man, and Mr H. Waide as groomsman. After the ceremony the wedding party were entertained by the bride's parents. Mr M. J. Linehan proposed the health of the bride and bridegroom, to which the bridegroom responded. The bridegroom proposed the health of the bridesmaids, and Mr J. Foley responded. Mr P. E. Swan proposed the health of the bride's parents, which was duly responded to. The happy couple left by the evening's train to Melbourne.
