The death occurred in a private hospital last night of Mrs. Mary Hanrahan, wife of Mr. James Joseph Hanrahan, of 71 Baylis street. The deceased went under an operation yesterday morning and was doing well, but she took a bad turn and died suddenly. Her death was a great shock to her relatives and friends. She was born at Numurkah (V.), and was married at Mulwala, and leaves her husband and a family of two daughters, Mary, aged 18 years, and Bernadette, aged 15 years, and one son, James Joseph Hanrahan, aged 16 years. There are four sisters, Mesdames W. Lowe, of Wagga, M. Flanagan, of Perth, Owen Smith, of Rutherglen, and M. Dwyer, of Richmond (V.), and five brothers, Messrs. Martin Maher, W. J. Maher, of Erigola, Thomas Maher, John Maher and Isidore Maher, of Yarrawonga. The funeral will move from St. Michael's Cathedral at 2.30 o'clock to-morrow for the Wagga cemetery.
