

The Late Mrs. Carl Weber.

The sad news of the sudden death of Mrs. Weber, wife of Mr. Carl Weber, surveyor, of Smith-street, on Saturday night last, caused quite a shock throughout Wollongong on becoming known. She had been somewhat unwell during the last three months, but only on Tuesday week last did her illness give special anxiety to her family. And even up to the moment of her death no fear of such an immediate result was entertained. On Saturday evening, however, symptoms being not as desired, Dr. Leo, who had been attending to her through-out, was called in, and during his visit at 9 she suddenly passed away by heart failure. The deceased lady was most exemplary in the best attributes of woman. As a wife and a mother she was devoted and true in the full sense of the expression, as her sorrowing husband and family are best aware of, with sacred memory. In accordance with an oft-expressed wish by the deceased, and at the request of her parents (residing at Silvania, George's River), the remains were taken by train to Sutherland on Monday forenoon, and buried in the Church of England cemetery there beside those of a dear sister. At the request of Rev. G. D'Arcy Irvine, the local C.E. clergyman conducted the burial service. She was a daughter of Captain William Rice, and had completed the 47th year of her age, leaving a husband, three sons, and four daughters to mourn their loss, and for whom much sympathy is felt in their bereavement.
