FUNERALMRS. J. HANRAHAN

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Hanrahan, of 71 Baylis street, Wagga, who died on Friday at the age of 53 years, took place on Saturday leaving St. Michael's Cathedral after a service conducted by the Rev. Father Lane. The long cortege indicated the respect in which the deceased had been held. The burial was in the Catholic portion of the Wagga cemetery where the Rev. Father Jarkins officiated. The coffin, which was covered with floral tributes, was carried to the grave by the deceased's four brothers, Messrs. Jack and Thomas Maher, of Yarrawonga, and Martin and William Maher of Erigolia, and two brothers-in-law, Mr. W. Lowe of Wagga and Mr. Owen Smith of Rutherglen (V.). The pall was carried by Messrs. Michael and James Salmon, James Hennessy, M. Mongan, James Toohey, and Gustave Sheehan. The chief mourners at the graveside were the husband, Mr. James Hanrahan, and son, James, two daughters, Misses Molly and Bernardette Hanrahan, Mrs. W. Lowe of Wagga (sister), Mrs. W. Maher, of Erigolia (sister in law), Bridget Maher of Erigolia and Margaret Smith of Rutherglen (nieces), Neal Maher, of Yarrawonga, and Harry Paton, of Junee (nephews), and Mrs. H. Murdock of Wagga (cousin). Among the many floral tributes were wreaths from Mr. J. C. Sheekey and staff, the day students of the Wagga Commercial College, Australian Hotel, and the staff of W. G. Huthwaite and Co.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. J. G. M'Donald.
