

till January 16.

THE LEGION of Catholic Women will hold a Christmas party for President (Mrs. G. Preston) said the Legion had been asked to conduct the party by Newcastle Migrant migrant children at Nelson's Bay Migrant Hostel on Wednesday. The Committee. Since the notice given had been rather short, owing to unforeseen circumstances, the Legion would appreciate help either in donations or in kind. Mrs. Preston's address is 10 King-street, Stockton (Stockton 172).

TIGHE'S HILL Methodist Women's Church Aid entertained about 60 people from the district at a Christmas party yesterday afternoon. Rev. P. Bolte presided.

Afternoon tea was preceded by a musical programme arranged by Mrs. Forster. Artists were Elwyn Willis, Irene Kane, Olive Worthington, Joan Louis, Mary Junor and Trevor Davies.

THE COMMITTEE of the Combined Catholic Charities this week distributed the proceeds of their annual ball. They gave £89 each to the Monte Pio and Murray Dwyer Orphanages, Deaf and Dumb Institute (Waratah), St. Gerards Institute and St. Joseph's Home for the Aged (Hexham).