

aged 8 years. R.I.P.

DALY.—On the 16th January, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Kate Tingay, Forrest-street, Castlemaine, Jane Ann Daly, dearly beloved wife of the late Edward Daly, Chawton, mother of the late Edward James, Robert, Lance-Corporal John and Private George Daly, A.I.F. abroad; also dearly beloved mother of Jane, Kate, Mick, Henry (A.I.F.) and Fred., grandmother of Amy, aged 70. R.I.P.

GRIFFITHS.—On the 16th January, at the Melbourne Hospital (result of an accident), Gwennoyth Griffiths, of Moore-street, Footscray, loving and beloved youngest daughter of John and Powelena Griffiths, 35 Moore-street, Footscray, loved sister of Powelena, John, Christina and Euphemia, aged 14 years 6 months. In God's care.

FRENEY.—On the 13th January, Clara Margaret, infant daughter of Joseph and Catherine Freney, 48 Smith-street, West Brunswick.

FITZ GERALD.—On 13th January, at his residence, 31 Barton-street, Hawthorn, Patrick Fitz Gerald, J.P., loving husband of Margaret Fitz Gerald, loving father of Daisy (Mrs. Heard), Francis, John, Gerald (deceased), Edward and Nellie, born, Newmarket, County Cork, Ireland, aged 78 years. Privately interred at Lynston. R.I.P. Lynston papers please copy.

FRASER.—On the 13th January, at her mother's residence, "Fairy Dell," Monbulk, suddenly, Jeannie, daughter of Mrs. Fraser and the late W. W. Fraser, and beloved sister of Fannie, Jack and Reg. Sadly missed and deeply mourned. Interred privately on the 14th at Maclefield Cemetery.

FRASER.—On the 13th January, at her mother's residence, "Fairy Dell," Monbulk, suddenly, Jeannie, beloved sister of William, and sister-in-law of Vera and aunt of Linda and Reg. Dearly loved and sadly missed.

FRASER.—On the 13th January, suddenly, at "Fairy Dell," Monbulk, Jeannie, dearly loved sister of the late Mrs. Deibies, Mrs. Newson, Mrs. Gatliff, Mrs. Mathers. Deeply mourned.

—Inserted by her loving sisters, Isobel and Violet.

FRASER.—On the 13th January, at "Fairy Dell," Monbulk, Jean, dearly beloved daughter of Mrs. F. Fraser. Interred Maclefield Cemetery, 16th January. Deeply mourned.

—Inserted by Mr. Fred. and Mrs. Maude Curtis (sister), and Inez and Edna.

GRAHAM.—On the 15th January, at his residence, 19 Fitzgibbon-street, Parkville, Hugh M. Graham, devoted husband of Alice, and loving father of James, Maud (Mrs. Boquist), Ethel and the late Gordon (killed in action), beloved second son of the late James Graham and Ann Lennon, late of Mansfield, and loving brother of Angus (deceased), Harry, Tom, James, Annie (deceased), Francis, Lucy (Mrs. Hutchinson) and William, aged 61 years. At rest.

GRAHAM.—On the 8th January, at his late residence, "St. Leonards," Camberwell-road, Auburn, John, loving father of James Bedford, and dear grandpa of little Jack.

Too dearly loved ever to be forgotten.

—Inserted by his loving son and daughter-in-law, Jim and Rene, 46 Clarence-street, Malvern.

GRAHAM.—On the 8th January, at his late residence, "St. Leonards," Camberwell-road, Auburn, John, loving father of George (late 3rd Pioneer Battalion and 11th Field Ambulance, A.I.F.).

So dearly loved and sadly missed.

He lived for my return.

—Inserted by his youngest son and Miss Nell Kilchin.

GRAHAM.—On the 15th January, at Wonthaggi Hospital, George (dead), No. 5104, late A.I.F., the dearly beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. Graham, Turner-street, North Wonthaggi, and loving brother of Mary, Mrs. Allan, Bob, Jack, Jean, Maggie, David, Nellie, Cathie and Angus, deceased, aged 24 years. Beloved by all. Peace, perfect peace.

GRAY.—On the 15th January, at the Children's Hospital, Frederick Harold, the dearly beloved only son of Denis and the late F. T. Gray, the darling brother of little Linda, aged 10 months. Passed peacefully away after much suffering.

GRIFFITHS.—On the 15th January, Gwennoyth Griffiths, of Moore-street, Footscray, loving and beloved companion of Carrie Mitchell.

A sweet influence.

—Inserted by Mrs. Mitchell and family.

HALL.—On the 14th, at his residence, William street, West Melbourne, William George, aged 47 years. Interred privately 16th.

HOLDING (nee Allport).—On the 15th January, at 188 Bay-street, Port Melbourne, Albert William, dearly loved twin son of Bert and Gladys Holding, loving brother of Bertie, George and late Norman (twin).

HOUSE.—On the 12th January, at the Kewick Military Hospital, Adelaide, Alfred David (late 2nd Div., Sig. Co.), dearly loved second eldest son of W and J. House, of 15 Hawking-street, Ascot Vale, and loving brother of William, Alma and Violet, aged 25 years and 10 months.

Dearly loved and sadly missed.

HUGHES.—On the 13th January, at Penang, F.M.S. (by cable), O. O. Hughes, of London.

—Inserted by friends.

JAMES.—At Adelaide Hospital, of pneumonia, Stanley W., the oldest son of the late A. O. James, born at Brighton, Victoria, Jubilee year.

—Inserted by W. James, 86 Highett-street, Richmond.

JONES.—On the 16th January, at her residence, 39 Evans-street, Port Melbourne, Ellen Elizabeth, the dearly beloved wife of Thomas Jones, and loving mother of Thomas, Alice, Dlewellyn (returned soldier), and Mrs. Waterman, and loving brother of Ian Leyden, aged 58 years. Rest in peace.

JOHNSON.—On the 15th January, at the Melbourne Hospital, late of 253 Princes-street, Port Melbourne, Archibald, the dearly beloved husband of Winifred Johnson, and loving father of Archibald, Linda, Irene, Alma, Amanda, May, Iris, Mavis, and loving brother of Mrs. Pash and Mary Johnson, aged 49 years. R.I.P.

JOHNSTONE.—On the 15th January, at his residence, "Thornhill," Gungahra East, Thomas, dearly beloved husband of Mary, and loving father of Hugh, Flora (Mrs. J. Poole), Neil, Will, Hannah, (Mrs. C. Lockwood), Jack, Mary (Mrs. V. Greenaway), Jessie and Isla, aged 76½ years.

KEENAN.—On the 16th January, at her residence, "The Nook," Brisbane-street, Ascot Vale, Margaret, the dearly beloved wife of the late Peter Keenan, and loving mother of Peter, Ellen (Mrs. Sandbach), Patrick, Margaret (Mrs. Stainaby), Thomas and James. A colonist of 67 years. At rest.

KEENAN.—On the 16th January, at her residence, "The Nook," Brisbane-street, Ascot Vale, Margaret Keenan, the dearly beloved aunt and dear friend of J. Ralston and S. McLean, of Port Melbourne, also loving sister of Duncan and Helen McPherson. A patient sufferer at rest.

KELLY.—On the 16th January, at "Winter," 228 High-street, St. Kilda, Timothy, beloved husband of Elizabeth, and much beloved father of Vaughan, Louie, Sydney, Cyril, Blanche, Sister Margaret Mary (Windar Convent), Mrs. J. J. Hasset, loving brother-in-law of M. Steel. No flowers. R.I.P.

LISTON.—On the 16th January, at the residence of his parents, 2 Lyons-street, Williamstown, Andrew Charles, the dearly loved son of John J. and Eva Liston, late of 100 St. Albans-street, St. Albans.

Rest in peace.

LOWE.—On the 12th January, at Kovel-street, Yarrawonga, Margaret Sarah, dearly beloved wife of John Charles Lowe, also loved mother of Elizabeth, Lucy, John, Thomas, William (late sergeant, A.I.F.), Albert, Irene, Frederick and Arthur, of Yarrawonga.

MADIGAN.—On the 8th January, after operation, result of accident, at Camfield Military Hospital, John James (Jim), dearly loved eldest son of Cecelia Madigan, of 206 Bridge-road, Richmond, and dear brother of Laurie (late 59th Battalion), Cecil (late 1st A.G.H.), and Pearl, Marjorie and Roma, loving uncle of Marjory and Jack. Interred Furwood 16th January, military honors. R.I.P.