

The North Eastern Ensign (Benalla, Vic. : 1872 - 1938), Friday 20 February 1920, page 2

Obituary

The death occurred at Yarrawonga on Sunday last of Mrs Catherine O'Dwyer, widow of Patrick O'Dwyer, of Joocey, the cause of death being heart failure. The deceased, who was 78 years of age, was highly esteemed, and reared a large family, who reside in this and the adjoining state. The remains were interred on Monday afternoon in the Yarrawonga cemetery, in the presence of a large assemblage of mourners. The Rev Father Dunne read the burial service at the graveside.

Mrs Matilda M., wife of Mr Nathan Hervey, of the locomotive branch of the Victorian railways, died at an early hour on Monday morning last, after a most distressing illness, caused by an internal complaint. The deceased was a native of Yorgoon, New South Wales, and was married at Wodonga, in 1890, coming shortly afterwards to Benalla, where she resided up to the hour of her demise. The late Mrs Hervey was a kind-hearted woman, who stood in high esteem among her neighbors. She leaves a family of 3 sons and 4 daughters—Rueben (Rutherglen), George (Shepparton), Mrs J. Mumford (Benalla), Mrs M'Guire (Wangaratta), and Misses Annie and Nellie Hervey. The remains of deceased were interred in the Benalla cemetery, the Rev J. O'Bally, P.P., reading the burial service and Mr Abbott acting as undertaker.

National Library of Australia

<http://nla.gov.au/nla.news-article70767972>