

variably leads to an occurrence of disgraceful scenes, which we regret to say are too frequent on such occasions; and after mutual expressions of good feeling between the representatives of both teams, and three hearty cheers for the captains and the umpires, a move was made for home, all being on the best of terms with one another. The weather, although very cold, was fine, and the ground in splendid order. Mr F. Allen acted as umpire for Corowa, and Mr Smithers as central umpire, and their decisions gave general satisfaction, being most impartial. The Border team returned home from Beechworth next morning, and expressed themselves as highly gratified with the courtesy with which they had been treated by the Beechworth club during their visit, and promised that should the team from the latter visit Corowa—which was expected would take place very shortly—they would receive similar treatment.
