Age given in Ballarat Cemetery details states age as 82

Margaret Maher's DC - Comments on

It seems that the Deputy Registrar Sam Walker?? only did his paperwork every 2 days - entries above Margaret's are given as 12 October.

Did Stephen Wellington give the wrong info about the age?

Even if the age was wrong, why weren't her children mentioned as they were on John's

The Will of her husband John stated that he was leaving property valued at £2,220, consisting of £2,000 realty and £220 personalty. The estate is left to the testator's wife for life ; then to his son. Martin Maher, for life; then to that son's children in equal shares, except as to one allotment of land, which is to go to the testator's daughter, Mary Deedman.

Notes for RONALD GEORGE DEEDMAN:
Sunshine Advocate (Vic. : 1924 - 1954)

Previous issue Friday 8 August 1952

Unlicensed Motor Cyclist Travels at 70 mph "I was just trying the bomb out," said a motor cyclist to traffic police who pulled him up on the Ballarat Road, near Deer Park on 9th June and asked why he had been travelling at 70 m.p.h. When asked why he did not possess a licence, the motor cyclist, Ronald George Deedman, 704 Skipton St., Ballarat, said, "I'm just learning to ride." As Deedman also had a pillion passenger on the machine, there were three charges preferred against him when his name was called at the Sunshine Court on Tuesday. For carrying a passenger while travelling at an excessive speed, he was fined £10, for carrying a passenger while not being licenced for twelve months he was fined £3, and for not being licensed he was fined £2.
