

OBITUARY

MRS. B. C. MAHER

The funeral of Mrs. Bridget Caroline Maher, who had been residing with her son-in-law, Mr. Wm. Lowe, of Norman-street, South Wagga, took place on Sunday. The deceased died on Saturday morning at 10.30, and was taken from Mr. Lowe's residence to Yarrowonga, where her remains were interred in the family enclosure of the Catholic portion of the Yarrowonga cemetery. The body was taken from Wagga to Yarrowonga by motor hearse, and the cortege, which left the Catholic Church at 3.30 on Sunday, was a very long one, composed of relatives and friends from Corowa, Mulwala, Coobera, Rutherglen, Albury, Balldale, Mount Gwynne, Temora, Griffith, Richmond (Victoria), and Wagga. Mrs. Maher was predeceased by her husband eight years ago. She leaves five sons, John, Thomas, Martin, William, Isidore, and five daughters, Mrs. Hanrahan (Wagga), Mrs. W. Lowe (Wagga), Mrs. Owen Smith (Temora), Mrs. Martin Flanagan (Fremantle, W.A.), Mrs. Michael Dwyer (Richmond, Victoria); and leaves a brother, Mr. Martin Roach (Gippsland, Victoria), and a sister, Mrs. Wade (Barellan), and leaves 50 grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren. The deceased was born in Victoria, in the Strathbogie ranges. The coffin was heavily silver mounted, and was covered with beautiful floral tributes. The interment took place at 3.45 p.m., and the funeral service was read by the Rev. Dr. Myers, of Yarrowonga. The funeral was joined at Corowa by many relatives and friends, and followed to Yarrowonga, when the remains were placed in the church, and a service read by Dr. Myers prior to leaving for the cemetery. Present at the graveside were the deceased's sons and sons-in-law, Mr. William Lowe (Wagga), Mr. James Hanrahan (Wagga), Mr. Owen Smith (Temora), and a great many of the grand children. The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. J. C. McDonald, of Wagga.
