

BIRTHS.

ANNAL (nee Ada Wardle).—On the 27th April, at 46 Gordon-grove, Northcote, to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Annal—a daughter (Norma Jean.) Both doing well.

ARCHER (nee Nilda Kerwin).—On the 12th April, at 115 Charles-street, Ascot Vale, the wife of Leonard Archer—a son.

ARNEY (nee Susie Metcalfe).—On the 13th April, at St. Leonards private hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Arney, "Clifton," Epsom road, Kensington—a daughter (stillborn).

BARNETT (nee Alice Hansen).—On the 26th April, at "Neenah," Spring-road, Moorabbin, to Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Barnett—a son. Both well.

BARROW.—On the 11th April, at St. Leonards private hospital, East Malvern, the wife of Alfred Barrow, of "Loch Lomond," Beaver street, East Malvern—a son.

BOYD (nee May Carter, Sale).—On the 28th April, at "Melby," Nurse Evan's private hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Boyd, Charles-street, Elsternwick—a daughter (Enid May). Both well.

LOWEN (nee Gladys Lambert).—On the 25th March, at their residence, "Sheffield," 48 Hamilton-street, Seddon, the wife of L. L. Bowen—a son (Byron Ellison).

BEATTIE (nee Elsie Taylor).—On the 30th April, at "Nethercourt," private hospital, Wilson-street, Surrey Hills, to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Beattie, of "Baronia," Hutton-street, Thornbury—a son (David Archibald).

BERRY (nee Hansen).—On the 12th April, at Bethesda private hospital, the wife of H. S. Berry—a daughter (Doreen Beryl).

BLAKE.—On the 28th April, at Nurse Lavar's private hospital, Ballarat East, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Blake, Post Office, Clunes—a daughter (Florence Eileen).

BRADLEY (Kathleen O'Connor).—On the 1st April, at "St. Leonards" private hospital, Flemington, to Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Bradley—a son (Duncan Philip).

BREADMORE (nee Doris Buckley).—On the 26th April, at 26 Garton-street, Port Melbourne, to Mr. and Mrs. D. Breadmore—a son (Douglas James Edwin).

BROWN (nee Vicie Tyrer).—On the 16th April, at their residence, "Comauk," Plenty-road, Heidelberg, to Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brown, returned Anzac—a daughter (Eva Victoria).

BURLEY (nee Steer).—On the 20th April, at 49 Clarke-street, Prahran, the wife of C. L. Burley (late A.I.F.)—a son. Sydney papers please copy.

BURNS.—On the 30th April, at Nurse Dowling's private hospital, Geelong, to Mr. and Mrs. Burns, 40 Western Beach—a daughter.

CAMERON (nee Milly Farr).—On the 20th April at Nurse Anderson's private hospital, Alexan-

JORDAN.—A tribute of love and affection for our dear friend Sylvia, of 497 Brunswick road, West Brunswick, who passed away at her parents' residence, Dromana, 27th April. Peacefully sleeping.
—Inserted by Elsie, Debney and Agnes Aberdeen.

KEAYS.—On the 2nd May, at 164 Raccoon road, Newmarket, Charles Edward Keays (chemist), husband of Ethel Maud, and loving father of Ethel Constance, and only son of the late John and Elizabeth Keays, of North Carlton and Darles road.

KENNEDY.—On the 2nd May, at 45 Hawke street, West Melbourne, Michael, husband of the late Ellen Kennedy, son of the late John and Catherine Kennedy, Cockburnth Bancha, C.C. Tipperary, Ireland, aged 69 years. Late of Yarra Junction. R.I.P.

LEE.—On the 29th April, at Geelong, Edgar Charles (late A.I.F.), No. 4849, 48th Batt., dearly loved youngest son of Mrs. M. E. Lee and the late Charles Lee, of Richmond-crescent, South Geelong; loved brother of Mrs. H. Blackwell and the late Sydney Lee. Interred Eastern Cemetery, Geelong, on 29th April. Western Australian papers please copy.

LEO.—On the 29th April, at 63 O'Shanassy street, North Melbourne, of acute heart failure, following influenza, Dolly, beloved only daughter of Madeline and the late Thomas Leo, of Tocumwal, and sister of Tom, Dan, Jim and the late William. R.I.P.

LEO.—On the 29th April, at 63 O'Shanassy street, North Melbourne, Mary Theresa (Dolly), dearly loved friend of Harry R. Russell. R.I.P.
—Inserted by her sorrowing fiancé, H. R. Russell.

LEVEY.—On the 13th April, at Arundel Gardens, London, George Collins Levey, in his 88th year. By cable.

LEWIS.—On the 29th April, at 19 Brunswick road, Brunswick, Mary, dearly loved grandmother of Elizabeth (Mrs. Forder), Charlie (on active service), Sylvia, great-grandmother of William, Wallace Forder. Peace, perfect peace.

MADDEN.—On the 1st May, at the Alfred Hospital, Samuel, dearly beloved husband of May, and dear father of Hina, Sammie and dear little Vera, and the dear son of Alice and the late J. Madden, M.H.R., beloved brother of Jane, Robert, David, John, Alice, Walter and William, and son-in-law of the late William and Anne Slatter, late 88th Fortress Co., A.E. R.I.P.

MAHER.—On the 28th April, at Piper street, Yarrowonga, Michael, dearly loved husband of Bridget, and loving father of John, Martin, Will, Tom, Isidore, Maggie (Mrs. Smith), Mary (Mrs. Hanrahan), Katie (Mrs. Dwyer), Nellie (Mrs. Flanagan) and May, aged 78. R.I.P.

Immaculate heart of Mary

Your prayers for him extol;

O, sacred heart of Jesus,

Have mercy on his soul.

O, sacred heart of Jesus,
Have mercy on his soul.

—Inserted by his sorrowing wife, sons and daughters.

MAHER.—On the 28th April, at Yarrowonga, Michael, loving grandpa of Bridgie, Michael, Neil and John Maher. R.I.P. Ever remembered.
—Inserted by his loving grandchildren.

MANLEY.—A tribute of love and respect to our dear workmate, Lily, who passed away at Clifton Hill, on the 27th April.

A life made beautiful by kindly deeds,
A helping hand for others' needs;
Good was her heart, her friendship sound,
Loved and respected by all around.

—Foy and Gibson's Weaving Department.

MANNING.—A tribute to the memory of our esteemed friend, Hannah, who died on 28th April, of pneumonic influenza.

Worthy of every respect was she,
From those she left behind;
A better friend could not be found,
A friend so true and kind.

—Inserted by her fellow workers, Fitzroy.

MARTIN.—On the 2nd May, at Exhibition Hospital, William Richard, loving eldest son of James and Isabella Martin, of Dundas-road, Maryborough; loving brother of James, Ruby, Ernest and Harry, aged 28 years.

MAYNE.—On the 27th April, at Armadale, of pneumonic influenza, Francis Joseph, the beloved fiancé of Agnes Morgan. R.I.P.

God's will be done.

—Inserted by his sorrowing fiancée, Agnes Morgan.

M'CRACKEN.—On 1st May, at 53 Ewing-street, East Brunswick, dearly beloved wife of A. M'Cracken, and mother of Queenie, Andy, Katie, Sarah, Barbara, Charles, and eldest daughter Alfred J. Hateley and late M. Hateley, Mount Gambier. South Australian papers please copy.

M'LEAN.—On the 26th April, at 209 Highett-street, Richmond, Alice Agnes, youngest daughter of Kenneth and the late Susan M'Lean, devoted wife of H. Sharp, fond mother of Kenneth, Lorna, Clarrie and Bruce, loving sister of John, Kenneth, James, Donald, and Mary. Loved by all who knew her.

MERRITT.—On the 1st May, at his residence, Malvern House, Station-place, Malvern, Charles, dearly beloved son of Thomas and Mary, and brother of Willie, aged 18 years, late of Warragul. Interred privately, St. Kilda Cemetery, 1st May. R.I.P.

MERRITT.—In fond remembrance of Charles Merritt, interred 1st May.

—Inserted by the boarders of Malvern House, Malvern.

MILWARD.—A tribute of love and respect to our dear friend, Mary Milward, who passed away on the 17th April.