

SYDNEY QUARTER SESSIONS.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER, 22.

Before Messrs. Foster, and Lamb,
P., and a Military Jury.

Anne Marva, was arraigned at the bar, charged with stealing one £5 note, two £1 notes, and a sovereign, the property of Corporal Bowman of the 17th, regt. on the 2nd. August.

Corporal Bowman sworn, stated, that on his leaving his room, he left in his box one £5, two 1£ notes, and a sovereign, and that on his return he missed the money.

Isabella Spain, sworn, deposed that she recollects the time Corporal Roman said he had been robbed; I saw the prisoner the same day, and asked her if she had taken the money in a lark; if so that she had better return it; she had it concealed in some wet linen that was in the room.

Elizabeth Bowman, sworn, stated that she used to keep money in the box produced in court, the money was returned me by the prisoner; I afterwards put it into the same box, and put the said box into a large chest, and the money was again taken out.

Verdict—Guilty, sentence, to be imprisoned 3 calendar months.

Robert Parker, was charged with stealing 2 bullock's tongues, the property of Hughes & Hoskings.

James Murphy, constable, stated that he got the two tongues now produced in court from Messrs Hughes & Hoskings' overseer.

Samuel Hazleworth, stated that in August last, the prisoner was employed to cart out meat, that he found the tongues in the prisoner's possession; they were wrapped in a piece of matting. Not guilty.

articles produced in Court; I took the prisoner Reilly in custody, the other made his escape.

Owen Ryan called, stated, that he knew the prisoner Green; that one morning in September, as he was going to the Surveyor's Office, he met the prisoner at the bar crossing the Race Course; on seeing me, they went behind the church, and I saw no more of them.

Verdict. Adam Reilly, Not Guilty; Patrick Green, Guilty; seven years to a penal settlement.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23.

Before W. Foster, and A. B. Spark, Esq. J.P. and a Civil Jury.

Sarah Whittington was charged with stealing a cap, the property of Mr. Clint.

James Kelly sworn and examined, deposeth, that in September last the prisoner at the bar was given into my custody by Mr. Clint, of King-street, for stealing a cap.

Mr. Clint sworn, deposeth, that his wife keeps caps and articles of wearing apparel; the cap produced is my property; I did not see the prisoner at the bar take the cap.

Elizabeth Lowry sworn, stated, that on the 17th of September last, she was in the employ of Mr. Clint, the prisoner at the bar came into the shop; I saw her take the cap now produced out of her pocket, on Mr. Clint bringing her back to the shop; I can swear the cap produced is the one the prisoner stole; I know it from having worked at it.

Verdict. Guilty; six months third class of the Factory.

Monsieur Tonson was charged with endeavouring to effect an entrance in Mr. Lord's house, in Macquarie-place.

Mr. Francis Lord sworn, deposeth, that in the month of August, in conse-

Verdict. Guilty; sentenced to be transported three years to a penal settlement.

James Power was charged with keeping six shillings, the property of his master.

Robert Hardie deposes, that the prisoner was in his service in the month of October last; he received six shillings from Mr. Clarke, which he kept for his own use; he said Mr. Clarke had not paid him; that he was from home; the prisoner was authorized to receive money for me.

William Clarke sworn, stated, that he paid the prisoner 6s. 6d. on account of bread; Mr. Hardie asked me about the payment, when I told him I had paid the prisoner at the bar.

Elizabeth Clarke sworn, deposes, I remember the prisoner calling at my house on the Friday? I saw my husband put his hand in his pocket, and then put it over the gate; cannot swear positively whether it was money or not.

Guilty. Sentenced to seven years transportation to Van Diemen's Land.

William Carey was arraigned at the bar, charged with stealing one bag, value one shilling; and potatoes, value 8s. in the month of September, the property of Patrick Clarke.

Patrick Clarke sworn, deposed, that the prisoner had a bag of mine, containing potatoes, which he took from my stall in the market; I then gave him in custody of an officer.

Guilty. Sentenced to a penal settlement for four years.

James M'Farlane pleaded guilty to a charge of stealing two harness casks, the property of Mary Larkins, of Kent-street.

Twelve months in irons.

Patrick Harty pleaded guilty to stealing two shirts, and one shawl, the pro-